Dear Name,

As the curtain closes on 2019, we'd like to thank you for sharing in Quasimondo's mission to make original performances that move bodies, hearts, and minds. Most recently, we presented "Mrs. Wrights" to sold-out audiences at the Charles Allis Art Museum, followed by deep-diving talkbacks on the power of performance to reveal underrepresented historical characters.

"Extraordinary...a virtuoso performance..." - John Schneider, Shepherd Express
"Mrs. Wrights is a very accessible tour de force of the highest artistic integrity" - playonmke.com

This past year, we also

- Premiered ensemble member Andrew Parchman's second original work, "The Feast"
- In response to overwhelming popular demand, re-mounted "Zie Magic Flute" in collaboration with Milwaukee Opera Theatre, winning our second Footlights Award
- Began laying the groundwork for "Bee the Change," a community arts program addressing environmental threats against our pollinators, which will reach 800 youth

And, we continue to build a home for ourselves by developing the North Milwaukee Arthaus, increasing our administrative capacity, and strengthening relationships. Towards these ends, we

- Were awarded Milwaukee County Historic Landmark status for the Arthaus
- Welcomed two new Board members – treasurer Diana Luttmann, CPA, partner at RitzHolman, and Chad Piechocki, grants administrator at Next Door Milwaukee
- Nurtured relationships through collaborations with Villard Avenue BID, Milwaukee Dance Theatre Network, Alverno College, Milwaukee Opera Theatre, Present Music, and more...

When Quasimondo shines, it is the result of the dedicated efforts of an entire ensemble, coming together to produce something greater than they ever could alone. So please join us as we build a solid foundation for Quasimondo's future. This, too, is a collaborative effort, and we hope you will be a part of it by giving generously today!

Sincerely,

Brian Rott, Executive Director & Jenni Reinke, Board President
